About this Book

This book is the results of 12 years of research and thousands of dollars invested. We traveled to Virginia - North Carolina - South Carolina - Georgia - Tennessee and Kentucky, - searching the libraries, courthouse records, and cemeteries, - collecting information. (this is the migratory route of the Caudle / Cordell family, - taken over the centuries by many generations. This is also the migratory route taken by the early Baptist as they spread from Colonial Virginia (1714) throughout the southern Colonies; and later the United States of America - the group widely known today as the Southern Baptist. The Caudle / Cordell's have always been very active devoted Baptist, with a very large number being missionary preachers.)

The data in this book has been checked, and double checked, and is highly accurate, but this data came from many sources, and may have some mistakes; so we cannot guarantee the 100% accuracy of this data. We have found that the English kept much better records than were kept in America which was largely - wild-frontier - for about the first 300 or so, years of our existence. America at that time was a place that spoke many languages, and had many different accents. Most people could neither read or write, they mostly focused on just staying alive, which was a full time job.

The history, and indeed the very lives of our family (Caudle / Cordell) (like most protestants), has largely been shaped by many centuries of fleeing from the long arm of the (then) powerful "Roman Catholic Church," and it's twin - "The Church of England." You cannot understand the history of this family without understanding the history of the "Baptist Church", because their histories are so closely entwined.

We have found the research of this family, one of the most complexed subjects we have ever viewed; being close to that of nuclear-physics or astronomy. ( like a giant jigsaw- puzzle with many of the pieces missing.) The facts herein are self-evident, however, where there are pieces missing, we could only guess; but this doesn't change the overall picture of this family in the least. The biggest problems were being able to distinguish the brothers from the first-cousins, and the fathers from the sons, we just had to give our best educated opinion in these few instances. This book spans hundreds of years, and over the course of this time-line, there were thousands of Caudle / Cordell's which came and went; far to many for anyone to cover them all. So, we have focused on going as far back in history as possible; this being the most difficult, but the most important. Although we had to focus on our own branch of the family, we hope to help many others who may find some of their ancestors in some of the data herein. ( we will try to include as much as we can )

I would like to apologize for my poor writing ability. I have no secretary, no editors, and no typing experience. I have arthritis and my eyes are bad.

A Brief History of Suffolk county, England

Since the Caudle / Cordell family of "Southern-Baptist" stock ( both Baptist and from the south ) came from, and lived in, Suffolk county, England for about 150 years or more, (this is a certain, not a guess.) they were English people, and a brief history of the area is a must.

The progenitor of this branch of the family "Stephen Caudle (Caudell )" was born 13 Sept., 1679 in Hopton Parish, Suffolk county, England; a small village on the Suffolk - Norfolk county line, about 25 - 30 miles north of Long-Melford.

Suffolk co. is bordered on the north, by Norfolk co., on the south, by Essex co., on the west, by Cambridge co., and on the east by the "North Sea," and is located in an area known as "East Anglia."

Suffolk is a county of varied ancestry. The nuclei of its present villages and towns date back at least to Saxon times, while, beneath some of its fields, aerial photography reveals the outline of Roman, as well as medieval cultivation. Roman roads may also be seen.

Before the Roman occupation, England was a pagan-tribal land, very much like the tribal systems of Africa and North America; the difference being, England was of the white race. It was an iron-using tribe called "Iceni" who inhabited " East-Anglia" when the Romans began their conquest with the invasion of AD 43. People at this time were still firmly rooted in their old prehistoric centres. The imposition of the Roman "Way of Life" on the old tribal system brought about significant changes, and the pace of Romanisation quickened at the turn of the century. Roads were constructed, some still surviving as green tracks, hedges, and parish boundaries. The Romans had ferry-boats crossing the North-Sea to the mainland of Europe; hauling trade-goods and supplies to their armies.

Roman rule lasted about 425 years - a very long time - about twice the age of the United States. Towards the end of the Roman rule a new threat was posed. The coast of East-Anglia was particularly exposed to raids from Saxons, who inhabited north-western Germany. By AD 500, East-Anglia was firmly under Anglo-Saxon control.

In the middle of the 9th century, the East-Anglian coast was raided again, this time by the Vikings. In 869, a large Viking army wintered at Thetford. The East-Anglian King Edmund, was killed in 870, and later honored as a Saint and a Martyr, for refusing to deny his Christian faith.

The invasion of East-Anglia by the Danes spanned the late Saxon age. Towns, Villages, and farms were pillaged, churches and monasteries obliterated.

Behind the dull statistics of the later Domesday survey, we must envisage not only the arrival of a few thousand Danes, but a significant expansion of the Anglo-Saxon population so that, by the time of the Norman invasion in 1066, East-Anglia had become one of the most densely peopled regions in Britain.

The later Middle-ages witnessed a time of economic decline. The Black-Death of 1349 ushered in a period when the population fell dramatically, and a remarkably high number of medieval settlements shrank or were abandoned.

Suffolk, and its sister county, Norfolk, received large numbers of immigrants from the mainland of Europe. ( Being just a short boat ride away )

By the 16th and 17th century being an Englishman meant, being born in England, not a persons bloodline. The bloodline would be mixed - Roman, German, Dutch, French, pre-historic tribesmen and others. About the same fate happened to the pre-historic native British tribesmen, as happened to the native-American tribesmen: (but well over one- thousand years sooner ) ie- they were driven westward from their land by hordes of settlers and invading armies. These British tribesmen fled to Wales, Ireland, and Scotland.

During the 16th and 17th century, many Protestants flee the mainland of Europe, and settle in East-Anglia, England. The French Protestants suffered the most, on 24 August,1572 ( The date of the "St. Bartholomew Day" massacre ) tens of thousands of Huguenots (French Protestants) were murdered, and about 400,000 flee to other countries, many to East-Anglia, and other parts of Britain. The first substantial Huguenot settlements in England, were in Kent and Sussex counties in 1540.

Suffolk, is one of the most eastern counties in England, and comprises an area of 1515 square statute miles, or about 969,600 acres of land, and has many rivers and streams. It is of an irregular figure extending about 56 miles in a direct line from east to west, and 32 miles from north to south; its eastern side occuppies about 50 miles of sea-coast on the north-sea.

The population of Suffolk in 1800 was 210,431.

A Brief History of the "Baptist Church"

The Caudle / Cordell family progenitor "Stephen Caudle" was always a Baptist; a Baptist in England, a Baptist in America, and born into a Baptist family. So, the history of the Baptist closely parallels that of the "Stephen Caudle" family. If a certain place had no Baptist, then that place probably had no descendents of "Stephen Caudle," living there.

The Baptist faith (Biblical interpretation) undoubtedly has been around about as long as the Bible itself, in small groups and by other names, but the first line of churches, which called themselves Baptist began in 1610 in Amsterdam, Holland. It began with a man named John Smyth who was a Bishop in the Anglican church of England. In 1606, he became convinced that the doctrines and practices of the Anglican church were not Biblical, and thus, he resigned his position as Priest, and left the church. Because of persecution by the Anglican church of all who disagreed with it, and who refused to submit to its authority, John Smyth had to flee England.

In Amsterdam, John Smyth, Thomas Helwys, John Murton, and thirty-six other Englishman formed the first known Baptist church. This church didn't survive however, in 1612, John Smyth died and this church died with him. The other members either joined the "Mennonites" or returned to England as the persecution there has lessened. John Murton, Thomas Helwys, and many of the group of thirty-six, returned to England, (Amsterdam is only a short distance across the North-Sea from Norfolk or Suffolk county, England) and formed the first Baptist church on English soil; a church that survived and grew, and is the fore-runner of today's - "Southern Baptist of America." By 1626, the church had grown from one, to five, and by 1644, there were forty congregations. ( these churches were armenian in theology not Calvinistic, or Particular Baptist).

It is my firm belief, based on - time, place, age, and family profile, that our progenitor, Stephen Caudle's grandfather "Henry Cawdell" was a member of this first Baptist church, and perhaps his father "Stephen" ( another Stephen ) was one of the original founders.

The Baptist aren't true Protestants, as aren't some of the other groups. There are in reality two groups of Protestants, but the second group should not be considered as such. Protestant means protestor; historically a group of Roman Catholic protestors who, lead by Martin Luther and John Calvin, broke ranks and rebelled against the Roman Catholic church during the "Reformation," which begin in the 1500's, and lead to the bloody civil war in France, where hundreds of thousands were either killed, or fled for their lives.(Huguenots) Tens of thousands fled to the English counties of Kent and Sussex, and later moved north to the counties of Suffolk and Norfolk - to adopt English names, learn the English language, marry English spouses, have English children, (by birth) and, in a few generations become "English Folks." ( by birth).

The second group of Protestants - almost like history repeating itself - were also protestors, but this time it was the "Church of England" they were rebelling against, and not the "Church of Rome."

The church of England, like the church of Rome, was a state church,(one controled by the government) and like all "state churches,"soon became an instrument of domination, and not a house of true worship; some would say a carbon-copy of the "Roman Church", that hundreds of thousands lost their lives, their homes, and everything they owned to escape. (the church of England was supposed to be a Protestant church.) This simply had to change, so large groups of people broke ranks with the state-church and formed or joined other churches, ie - the Puritans, the Baptist, and others. Anyone who differed from the practices of the state-church were subject to great persecution. Puritan and Baptist alike, in order to escape persecution, migrated to the new world. However, once in America, the Puritans also persecuted the Baptist. (See - "The Trail of Blood," by-J.M.Carrol ) The Puritans wanted to change the church of England - the Baptist wanted complete freedom from it, to worship "God" anyway they choose.

Roger Williams is credited with founding the first "Baptist" church in America. In 1631, he arrived in the Massachusetts colony from England. He strongly believed in the separation of church and state, and was much displeased with the Puritan theocracy. Puritan churches were called congregational churches,and they greatly persecuted the Baptists.Because Roger Williams believed in religious freedom, the Puritans banished and drove him from the Massachusetts colony. He moved to what is now Rhode Island, and in March 1639, formed the first Baptist church in America.

The Baptist of the Virginia colony came from three sources:1-from England, 2-from Maryland,and 3 from New England. Virginia had been settled a full century before the Baptist were even mentioned by name in its annals. The first Baptist in Virginia were emigrants from England, who, about 1714, settled in the southeastern part of the colony. (see- "Sketches of Virginia"- 2nd.series, P-579 by Foote ) - ( Right time, right place, and right religion, for "Stephen Caudle" ) Our progenitor Stephen Caudle, his wife Mary, and perhaps three small sons, ( Stephen Jr., John, & Sampson) and daughter Sarah, were among these first Baptist to come to Virginia.

The next group, about 1743, came from Maryland and settled in the northwestern part of the colony. (wrong time, wrong place, for Stephen Caudle)

The third group, called "New Lights" lead by "Shubal Stearns,"went from Massachusetts to Frederich county, Viginia, ( northwestern part ) in 1754. (wrong time, wrong place, for Stephen Caudle ) - ( see - "History of the Baptist" by Semple )

The history of the Baptist church in Virginia abounds in instances of the prosecution and punishment of Baptist preachers. John Walter, Lewis Craig, and James Childs were arrested in Spotsylvania county, and William Webber and Joseph Anthony were imprisoned in Chesterfield county. It is interesting to note that the first permanent "Baptist" church established in Virginia was in the original area of Lunenburg county. ( the home of Stephen Caudle Jr.)

Many of the descendants of Stephen Caudle moved, just south, into North Carolina, seeking more freedom, more land, and more places to build churches. The Caudle / Cordells, and many others became the Baptist church builders of the southern mountains.

About our Names

The Caudle / Cordell's apparently had two names; each acceptable to them. The reason for this isn't completely understood, but they each, intentionally, used Caudle some of the time, and Cordell some of the time; plus; many, many, variations in spelling and pronunciation of these two names, as the generations came and went. There are more than one way to spell many words - our surname included. Just which of these ways, someone would use, depended on who they were, and where they lived. "Caudle" is an alternate way of spelling "Caudell", and "Cordle" is an alternate way of spelling "Cordell." You might say - Caudle is short for Caudell, and Cordle is short for Cordell, and the difference between Caudell and Cordell is only a matter of accent (style of speaking) in the place where they lived. This is why the spelling of the name, would sometimes change, when they moved to another place.

Some of the variations in the spelling of our name were correct; (Cordell / Cordale) and some incorrect; (Cordell / Cordail) -- correct - (Caudell / Caudle) -- incorrect - (Caudell / Caudill) -- correct (Cordell / Cordle) -- incorrect - (Caudle / Candle) etc. In Caudle / Candle, someone made their hand-written "U" to look like an "N." (very common) This is just a few of the dozens of ways our name has been spelled and mis-spelled over the centuries.

"Cordell" is a natural evolutionary derivative of the name "Cordwell," and "Caudell" is a natural evolutionary derivative of the name "Caudwell." These names are spelled with an "E" not an "I," so whenever you see an "I" in one of these names, its a mis-stake. "Caudle" is a derivative of "Caudell" (Cawdell) and "Cordle" is a derivative of "Cordell." ( Cawdwell / Cawdell, may be spelled with a "W" or "U" or "L", but in old England it was usually spelled with a "W.")

Although, in the beginning, (Centuries ago) Cordell & Caudell were derivatives of Cordwell and Caldwell, and probably not the same family, they became the same family by where they lived, and the way people spoke English in the place they lived, ie,- someone mistakenly using the spelling (and pronunciation) of the wrong name. Thus, Caudell & Cordell became inter-changeable. In some places, the speaking style was such, that the name sounded like "Cordell", and in other places it sounded like "Caudell."

In reality, probably most Americans using any form of our name, are Caudell / Caudle's - the derivative of "Cawdwell." (except those who adopted our name )

Names, like everything else, change over time. Evolutionary name-change, like most other things, change along the expeditious lines of economics; ie- to shorten and simplify, in order to save time. (What our lives are made of ) Examples = Robert / Bob -- Richard / Dick -- William / Will -- Catherine / Cathy etc., ie - to save time by changing a multi-syllable word to one with a single syllable.

Over enough time, in the old days, surnames had to change; not to do so was almost impossible. The "W" in Cawdwell (or Caldwell) and Cordwell had to be dropped by someone; thus, creating the new surnames of Cawdell and Cordell, while others kept the old surnames of Cawdwell and Cordwell.

In the name "Cadell" both of the "W"s were dropped; probably at different times. So, we have Cawdwell becoming three different names, - Caldwell, Caudell, and Caddell. These new names, plus the old ones, evolved into many more names, over the centuries; as we have seen, and will see.

The old British habit of trying to speed-up, the speech, by cutting the last syllable short, (braking off to soon ) created the new names of -- Cordle from Cordell, -- Caudle from Caudell, -- and Cadle from Cadell. ( Example = Centre from Center )

Then we have all those names, created from our names, by people who were hard-of-hearing, or simply weren't very good at spelling: when taken all-together they created dozens of names.

I once thought this happened in "Back-woods America", but, from the list of names from England, we see it happened many generations before the Caudle / Cordell's came to America.

Then we have " Name-Adoption," (intentionally using and changing ones surname to that of someone else ) which is quite common among immigrants with hard to pronounce names - celebrities - criminals - and tribesman such-as "Native-Americans" and "African-Americans", who only had one name: thus, having to adopt someone else's name.

I have known both, Native Americans and African Americans, with the "Cordell" name; so, all Cordells are not akin. White people have adopted our name, as well as non-whites. Of course, all people who descended from the progenitor, " Stephen Caudle" from Hopton Parish, England, were akin. Most were (or are) living in, or had ancestors from --- Va. - N.C. - S.C. - Ga. - Tenn. & Ky., and, are of the "Baptist Faith".

Some non-whites were born with our names, because one of their ancestors married a non-white spouse, or one of their ancestors had adopted our name, long before they were born.

Some of us may be just as interested in our "Bloodline" as we are the spelling of our names, and we find it to be just about as varied.

From England, our "Bloodline" is - part tribesman, from pre-historic Britain - part Roman, from the Roman occupation - part Viking, from the Viking occupation - part Norman, from the Norman occupation - and part French, from the massive influx of French Huguenots, (French Protestants) during the 16th and 17th century.

After coming to America, (about 1718) the blood of Native-Americans were added to our "Bloodline." Our "Bloodline" is just about as mixed as alphabet-soup (like most Americans), and this is not even counting all the females in our ancestry. Remember, we all had "16" great-great-grandparents, and "32" great-great-great-grandparents.

Of our names; Cawdwell and Cawdell (Caudell) appear to be the earliest, about -1450) and Caudle / Cordell the most frequently used.

Note -- I have spelled all names in this book, just as I found them.

England

Hopton Parish - 1500 to 1700

Family # 6 = Stephen Cawdle (2nd)- the progenitor of the - southern Va - N.C. - S.C. - Ga.- Tenn.& Ky. branches of the Caudle / Cordell families was born -13 Sept.,1679, in Hopton Parish, Suffolk co., England. Stephen was married twice, his first wife was Sarah Biddall, they married in 1700, in Coney Weston Parish,- about 2 or 3 miles from Hopton Parish, Suffolk co.England.( his brother Henry married Martha Galliard - same time & place). The children of Stephen & Sarah are as follows-----

Children = Sarah Cawdle - br., 26 May, 1701. (England)
Stephen Cawdle Jr. br.ca.-1704. ??? - no information. (England)
Elizabeth Cawdle - br. 25 Sept., 1706.- England.

Stephen's first wife, Sarah Biddall, died - 3 Sept., 1708 leaving Stephen and these children.

Stephen Cawdle (w) married his second wife, Mary Francis, 6 May,1709 in Redgrave Parish - about 3 or 4 miles east of Hopton.(See Map) -- Stephen's daughter Elizabeth died - 24 Sept.,1710, just one day short of being 4 years old.

This Stephen is not seen in England anymore, they went to America - ca. 1714 - 1718.
(Just a short note about Stephen's brother Henry) Henry Cawdle stayed in the Hopton area (at least for some years) Henry & Martha's 1st. son, was named Henry, after the old man, their 2nd. son was named Stephen, after Henry's father and brother; - son Henry, was born 30 Nov.,1701; - son Stephen was born 11 April,1703, but died 7 Jan.,1704 - living about 9 months - Martha died giving birth to another baby on 28 Mar.,1710, but this new baby died - 12 May,1710, - living only 45 days. (the luck of Job)
Henry Cawdle (w) remarried - in 1714, in Onehouse Parish to Mary Moy.

Stephen and Mary Cawdle, their children, and daughter- Sarah Cawdle, (now about 16 -18 yrs.old) went to America and settled in St.Andrews Parish, Surry county, Virginia. It is believed there were 4 children - Sarah & Stephen Jr. - by Sarah Biddall, and John & Sampson - by Mary Francis. Sampson may have been born in Virginia. Sarah Cawdle (Cordell) may have come to America, at a different time, and on a different ship, from her father and step-mother. She came to America (ca. 1718) in bondage, ( indentured servant) but it's still possible that Sarah was on the same ship as Stephen & Mary.

( Sarah lived with her grandmother (Elizabeth) much of the time.) The name of the ship,or ships they came to America on, is not known, and neither is the exact date. It is also not known if Stephen's brother Henry, or nephew Henry, ever came here, but it's beleived that Henry Sr.died in Suffolk co. England.---- Stephen's nephew Henry, likely came to America later.

Well, we will now leave merry old England, where they kept better records in 1500, than they did in America, in 1900. Americans just didn't keep many records, and when they did, someone would find a way or reason, to burn them. It is believed a group of Baptist came to America with Stephen Caudle, who was always a Baptist. The first Baptist came to Virginia, from England, about 1714, according to Baptist history. This is proof that Stephen came to America - 1714 to1718, or shortly thereafter.

We can forget the belief, that Stephen came from Scotland, he was never even in Scotland. He was English; living in Suffolk co. England, for at least 150 - 200 years. ( Him and his ancestors )

See you next in - St.Andrews Parish, Surry county, Virginia, America.

St.Andrews Parish, Surry County, Virginia

Stephen Caudle (2nd.)- the Progenitor, arrived in Virginia - ship unknown - place unknown - year = between 1714 & 1718. He settled in - St.Andrews Parish, in Surry county, Virginia; which was, in 1720, made into Brunswick county, and in 1780, Greenville county.

Family # 6 = Rev. Stephen Caudle (2nd) married Sarah Biddall (his 1st. wife) in 1700 - England.

Children = Sarah Caudle - br. 26 May,1701, in England.

Stephen Caudle Jr.( the third )- br. ca. 1704 ??? England (no information )

Elizabeth Caudle - br. 25 Sept., 1706. ( England ) died 24 Sept. 1710.

Rev. Stephen Caudle ( 2nd) married Mary Francis (2nd. wife)- 6 May,1709, in England.

Children = John Caudle - br. ca. - 1712 ??? England. ( no information )

Sampson Caudle - br.ca.- 1714, in England.

James Caudle - br.ca. - 1718, in England or Surry county, Virginia.

Edward Caudle ( Cordle ) - br.ca. - 1723, in Brunswick county, Virginia.

Isom Caudle ( Cordil ) - br. ca. - 1727, in Virginia.

Benjamin Caudle - br.ca. - 1729, in Brunswick county, Virginia.

David Caudle - br. ca. - 1731, in Brunswick county, Virginia.

Plus some unknown daughters.

Notes - It's impossible to list all of Stephen's children, or most anyone else's, because of the lack of information. The census were not taken until 1790, and the names of children were not listed until 1850 - also, some of the census were lost. It is also impossible to list the childrens exact age and birth-order; and female children, as a rule, cannot be listed at all, because they get married and change their name: first cousins, who live next door, are often listed as brothers.-- In America, before 1800, the criteria used to identify a family is, - time, place, relative-ages, association, and family profile; plus,- land deeds, wills, court records, tax records, military records, and marriage records, - when available.

The "Progenitor Stephen Caudle (2nd)" was about 5 -10 years older than commonly believed, and his children were sometimes older. Stephen had a great many Grand-children in both Virginia and North Carolina. It's possible that some of Stephen's children listed above, are his grand-children (sons of Stephen the third br., about 1704.) It's impossible to know, with certainty. Most of Stephen's children, moved first to Lunenburg county, Virginia: then, just south, into North Carolina.

Stephen Caudle's ( 2nd ) ancestors probably immigrated from the mainland of Europe, ( Holland - Germany - or France), between 1500 and 1550, into eastern England. I beleive Stephen Caudle ( 2nd.) came to America about 1718, because, 1 - his mother died in 1717, 2 - he inherited some money from a minister in 1716, 3 - records show his daughter Sarah came to America about - 1718. Stephen Caudle ( 2nd ) was always a Baptist, and believed to be a Baptist minister, who was schooled in Cambridgeshire county, England.

North Carolina

Family # 7 = Benjamin Caudle Sr. - br.ca. - 1729, in Brunswick county, Virginia.- Died about - 1776.

Wife - Elizabeth Unknown

Children = Absalom Caudel - br. 7 Oct.,1759, Halifax co.,Virginia. - Died, 7 Mar.1846, in Anson county, N.C.

Benjamin Caudle Jr.- br. in Granville county, N.C.- died in Ga.or Al.

Stephen Caudle - br. Mar.1761 in Granville co. N.C. - died , Dec.,1843
Butler county, Alabama.

Jesse Caudle - br. ca. - 1767, in what is now Chatham co. North Carolina.
died in Habersham county, Georgia. - ????

John Caudle - ??? no information.

Plus some unknown daughters.

Notes - Benjamin Caudle Sr. went from Brunswick county, to Sussex county, Virginia - Sussex, was formed from Surry county in 1753 - - he went from Sussex, to Lunenburg, then to Halifax county. Lunenburg was formed from Brunswick in 1746, and Halifax from Lunenburg in 1752. Sometime about 1758-1760, he moved, just south, across the Va.-N.C. line into Granville county, North Carolina. ( Many "Baptist" were leaving Colonial Virginia.)

Benjamin and John Caudle ( brothers, or uncle & nephew ) are listed among the Granville county, N.C. tithables ( tax ) for the years 1760 &1761. Sometime between the years of 1765 and 1770, Benjamin moved over into - what is now Chatham county, N.C.

The "Patterson" family was always with the Benjamin Caudle family - they moved together, served in the "Militia" together, and inter-married. Benjamin's wife was probably the daughter of John Patterson Sr.

This is a very helpful tool, when we try to locate, and identify, the descendants of Benjamin Caudle Sr.

John Patterson Sr. and Benjamin Caudle Sr., and some of their descendants are listed in the "tithables" of Granville & Chatham counties, N.C. - Their descendants are again listed on the census of Rowan and Wilkes counties, N.C. - They are still together in Habersham county, Ga. and Scott county, Tenn.

Benjamin Caudle Sr., William Patterson, and David Patterson, served together in the Chatham county, N.C. militia, during the "Revolutionary War." Benjamin Caudle Sr. died while still in service. ( probably in S.C. or Ga.) (see - "Chatham County,( N.C.) 1771 to 1971 - by Hadley H. Strowd - - This list of names is for the "Loyalist Militia" of 1772 Chatham county, N.C. - Capt. Hogans and Capt. Brooks company. ) Benjamin left behind a wife and several children, who, John Caudle and William Patterson, ( their Uncles ) helped in raising.

Charlotte Caudle married John Patterson, ( her cousin ) 26 Aug.,1802 - in Rowan county, N.C. Bondsman = Sam Johnson, witness = A.L.Osborn. ( from records in N.C. archives ) This Charlotte Caudle and John Patterson were the parents of - Catherine Charlotte Patterson Caudle ( Cordell ) of Scott county, Tenn. This John Patterson was a grandson to the Granville county, N.C. John Patterson Sr.

Remember, there were many Benjamin Caudles named after Benjamin Caudle Sr.- his son, grandsons, and nephews.

North Carolina

Family # 8 = Rev. Jesse Caudle ( Caudell )- br.ca.1765 -1770 in what is now Chatham county, N.C. married Susannah (Susan) ca. 1790 - 1795,- died in Ga or Tenn., ca.1835.

Children = Stephen Caudle ( Cordell ) - br.ca.1795 -1799, in Laurens county, S.C.

died - 21 Dec.1866, in Scott co. Tenn. ( See family sheet )

Benjamin Caudle (Caudell ) - br.ca. 1804, in N.C.or S.C. - married Martha Barton, 28 Oct.1830.(see Habersham county, Ga. marriage records for 1830.)

John Caudle (Cordell ) - br. 28 Dec.1811 in Franklin county, Ga.- married 20, Aug. 1835, to Mary D.Crane - died 31, Dec.1889 in Scott county, Tenn.

Plus 5 unknown daughters.

Notes - The data on "Jesse Caudle" is confusing at best, because he was from N.C., his wife from S.C., and Ga. was their adopted home. Jesse owned property in Chatham county N.C., a farm in Ga., and, his wife's family home was in S.C. Also, Jesse won more land in the Ga.

"Land- lottery", so, he wasn't a poor man.- Jesse traveled frequently from N.C. to S.C. and Ga. He bought and sold land in all three states.

There is no evidence that this "Jesse Caudle" was ever in Wilkes county, N.C., like many of his cousins. The Wilkes county, N.C. "Jesse Caudle" is not this Jesse, that's been proven.

It's also a certainty that the Ga. Jesse is the Chatham county N.C. Jesse, and a grandson of the progenitor "Stephen Cawdle." It's not been proven, just which, of Stephen's sons was Jesse's father, but it's widely believed, and there is lots of evidences, that Jesse's father was Stephen's son Benjamin. Benjamin and John Caudle were the first known Caudles to move to N.C. - Jesse named his first son "Stephen," after his grandfather, his second son "Benjamin," after his father, and his third and last son "John," after John Caudle or John Patterson.

Jesse's wife is believed to be Susannah, but I haven't found any proof of this. She was born about 1770 -1775 in Pendleton county S.C., and is believed to be at least one-half " Cherokee Indian."

Jesse Caudle ( real name Jesse Caudell - depending on spelling-style - some people used "EL" and some "LE" ) was a Baptist preacher, and is recorded in the S.C. Baptist history books as a "Deacon" ( the second Clergyman ), in the Baptist churches of both Laurens and Pendleton counties.

The census on Jesse show him to be the "Head-of-Household" in 1790 Chatham county N.C., when he wasn't supposed to be married. ( probably "Jesse," younger brothers, and sisters; or he was married twice) Jesse was only about 23 yrs. old here - too young to have a wife and two children. Jesse was counted in 1800, on both the Chatham county N.C., and the Laurens county S.C. census. In 1810, he was back in Chatham county N.C., where the census showed him to be the head of a double household, with two females old enough to be his mother, and two females old enough to be his wife. By late 1811, he was in Ga., and by 1820 he had sold his Ga. farm to Mary Whiten, and moved to Pendleton co. S.C., and then by 1830, he was living in Habersham county Ga. - After the 1810 census, Jesse Caudle is not seen in Chatham county N.C. again: if he had died, his family would still be there, but they aren't there either. By 1830, all of the Chatham co. N.C. "Caudles" were gone, except "Rebecca Willis Caudle"- the widow of John Caudle, -- most had moved to the now (1830) home of Jesse Caudell - Habersham County, Georgia.

S.C. -- Ga. -- Tenn. -- Ky.

In the 1790 census, there was only one "Jesse Caudle" - the Chatham county, N.C. Jesse - by 1800 the young Jesse in Wilkes county, N.C. "came of age" and made the census, and the Chatham county, N.C. Jesse was counted twice - once in Chatham county, and again, over one year later, in Laurens county, S.C.

1790 - Chatham co., N.C. = Jesse Caudle - 11200
1790 - Anson co., N.C. = Absalom Caudell - 10300
1790 - Anson co., N.C. = Elizabeth Caudell - 10100

The ca. 23 year old Jesse Caudle ( Caudell ) is the "Head-of-Household," at the family farm, along with his sisters, ca. 17 & 19 year olds, plus, an ca.15 year old brother - father Benjamin is long dead, and mother Elizabeth ( Head-of-Household ) and one son, are temporarily living near her oldest son, Absalom in Anson county, N.C.

Sometime, in the near future, mother Elizabeth returns to the family farm - all her children get married and leave home - Jesse went to S.C., got married, had a son, and returned, and is again listed as "Head-of-Household".- - - 1800 - Chatham county, N.C. = Jesse Caudle - 10010 - 00101 ( the old female is Jesse's mother ). Reads = baby son - Jesse - wife - mother. Within the next 12 to 18 months, Jesse, his wife and son, ( Stephen ) return to the home of his wife in S.C., and have a baby girl.
1800 - Laurens county, S.C. = Jesse Cordle ( Caudle ) - 10010 - 10100.

The above is what happened, or Jesse was married more than once, which I doubt, or the census is wrong, which I also doubt. From 1790 to 1830 is 40 yrs, so Jesse didn't do as much moving as it seems.

Family # 9 = Rev. Stephen D.Caudle ( Cordell ) - br. ca. 1795 - 1799, in Laurens county, S.C.

Died - 21 Dec. 1866, in Scott county, Tenn.( the Scott co.Tenn. Caudles changed their name to Cordell, about 1855 - 1865 ) ( probably because of the "Civil -War," The Scott co. Tenn and Whitley co.Ky. Caudle / Cordell's fought for the "North", while their cousins in Ga. and far Eastern-Ky., fought for the "South." The issue of "Slavery" divided the Caudle family.)
Caudell is the most correct way to spell our name. ( For more information - see family sheet.)

Family # 10 = Rev. William H. Cordell - br. 1841, in Campbell county, Tenn. - - Died -1898, in Whitley county, Ky. ( For more information - see family sheet.)

Family # 13 = Lenville Benjamin Cordell - br. 10 Oct. 1928, in Williamsburg, Ky. ( still living in 2001 )
( For more information - see family sheet.)

Family # 14 = Michael W. Cordell - br. 7 April, 1954, in Cincinnati, Ohio. ( still living in 2001 )
( For more information - see family sheet.)

Note - The code for 1790 census is, in order - # M over 16, # M under 16, # females all ages.
The code for 1800 census is, in order - # M under 10, # M 10-16, # M 16-26, # M 26-45, and # M over 45. Female row - same as male.

Note - Much, can be learned from a careful study of this list of names - ie, the unbelievable number of people named "John and Elizabeth".-- Notice how, at the start of the list, in the 1500's, the name was spelled Caudell, and at the end of the list, in the 1800's, it was spelled Cordell. Also, notice the same "Caudell," was sometimes spelled "Caudle or Caudel," and the same "Cordell," was sometimes spelled "Cordle or Cordel". (different styles of spelling ) We need to also notice how these six ,"Caudell and Cordell" names were interchangeable, because in reality they were the same name except - the different people doing the "speaking or writing", had different ways of speaking or writing, the same name. In "Hopton Parish," at the time of "Stephen Caudle's" birth in 1679, the name was spelled "Cawdle;" by 1800, also in "Hopton Parish," the name was spelled Cordell. - - It is also interesting to note, the large number of babies, that died in their infancy; and their mothers, who died giving them birth. We must thank, Mr.Alan Cordwell of England, who compiled this wonderful list of names, and Mr.William H. Cordell of Tenn.- the publisher of "Cordell Clippings" newsletter, for printing it.

Witnesses - William Fletcher and William Manin. ( This deed shows that Stephen Caudle lived in Surry co. between 1731 and 1741; then moved to Brunswick co. before 1741; then went back, and sold his Surry co. place to Lawrence Gibbons before 1746.)

John Cordle - - 1736, was on the list of titheables south of Deep Creek, in Amelia co. Va. ( part of Prince George co. before 1735.)

Early Caudle / Cordell's

Stephen Cawdle - - 1731, Land Grant in Surry co.Va. - 195 acres on north side of Nottaway river.

Stephen Caudle - - 4 Aug.,1747 - Deed book 3, page 331. Indenture between Stephen Caudle of St.Andrews Parish, Brunswick co.,Va. planter, and Sampson Caudle of same, for 5 shillings,146 acres, being part of a tract of 446 acres granted to said Stephen Caudle by deed from the Kings office, for term of one whole year. Signed Stephen Caudle. Witnesses: William Reed ( bhm ), John Gunter, ( bhm ), John Sass ( bhm ).Court Aug. 6,1747. Indenture acknowledged by Stephen Caudle.

Stephen Caudle - - 13 June,1748, - 1 pole in Brunswick co.Va. - taken by John Willis.

Sampson Caudle - - 13 June, 1748, - 1 pole in Brunswick co. Va. - taken by John Willis.

Stephen Caudle - - 7 Nov. 1750. - Deed Book 5, pages 53 - 55, Brunswick co. Va. Stephen Caudle and wife Mary, of St. Andrew Parish for 60 lbs.conveyed to James Quarles 250 acres.

Stephen Caudle - - died 1758, - inventory 1759, - wife Elizabeth ( Full name - Mary Elizabeth Francis )
Mary Elizabeth was Stephen's second wife, his first wife was Sarah Biddall. ( See family sheet )
This Stephen Caudle, the progenitor of the southern branch of the Caudle / Cordell family was 79 years old when he died, being born on - 13 Sept.,1679.

Stephen Caudle - - Aug. 1759 - Land grant of 400 plus acres in Lunenburg co. Va. ( This Stephen Caudle is the son of the progenitor Stephen (since the progenitor Stephen had died about one year earlier), and a brother to James Caudle Sr.of Lunenburg co. Va., and Wilkes co. N.C. ) This Stephen Caudle came to America as a child with his father, and is older than his brother James Sr.

Sarah Caudle - - 30 Nov.,1771 - St.Andrews Parish, Brunswick co. Va., Vestry Book, - an amount of 500 ( lbs.or Sh. ? ), paid for maintainance for one year.- This Sarah Caudle ( Cordell ) is the oldest daughter of the progenitor Stephen Caudle, and came to America either with him, or about the same time. She was by his first wife Sarah Biddall, and was born 26 May,1701 - making her 70 years old, in the year of 1771; by this time her father and stepmother were already dead, and her half-brothers were either dead or moved away, making it very hard for her to live. She needed all the help she could get. Sarah's mother and only whole sister died while she was only a small child, and she lived with her grandmother "Elizabeth" in Hopton Parish most of the time. Sarah never married and was probably handicapped in some way. It is not known whether Sarah had any children or not; although not married, she still may have.

Note - - Stephen Caudle Sr.(above) received a land grant for 446 acres, of which he sold 146 acres to his son Sampson, and 250 acres to James Quarles, - leaving 50 acres for his homeplace, where he, wife Mary, and daughter Sarah ( almost 50 yrs.old at the time of the James Quarles sale ), lived out their lives. Stephen died there - Mary died there - and years later Sarah died there. Stephen - Mary - and Sarah, were buried in St.Andrews Parish, Brunswick co. Va. ( now Greenville co.) One of the grand-children probably got the "Homeplace," after Stephen - Mary - and Sarah, died.

Early Caudle / Cordell's

Sarah Cordell - - 1719,- in bondage. ( Maryland ) - Note - this Sarah is the daughter of the progenitor Stephen Caudle, she was 18 years old in 1719, just about the right age and the right time. Stephen came to America between 1714 and 1718. We do not know what is exactly meant by "Bondage" in her case, or the name of the ship that either came to America on; my best guess is, that Stephen, wife Mary, daughter Sarah, ( and the small children ) were all on the same ship,- with Sarah "Bonded" (as an indentured servant ) to help pay for the passage of her family. Sarah could have been on this ship alone, trying to find her family after her grandmother died; however, I don't believe for one minute that Stephen would have left England as long as his mother "Elizabeth" (who died 23 Feb.,1717) was still alive. This means they all probably came to America with Sarah, whom we know came in 1718.

Stephen Caudle - - 1757 - 1764, Lunenburg co.Va. - Cumberland Parish Vestry Book - allowance for supporting daughter. ( This could have been Stephen Sr.who died in 1758, getting support for Sarah - for the year 1757, but, this is probably Stephen Jr. getting support for his daughter - or this could have been simply a tax allowance.)

Stephen Cordell ( Caudle ) - - 1752 - Tithe list ( Tax ), taken for Lunenburg co. Va. by Hugh Lawson. This is likely Stephen Caudle Jr. and James Caudle Sr.

James Cordell ( Caudle ) - - 1752 - Tithe list ( Tax ), taken for Lunenburg co. Va. by Hugh Lawson.

James Cordell - - 1734, Brunswick co.Va. "Road Orders" - James Gordell in index - Cordell on the road order. ( This is the Wilkes co., N.C. James Caudle Sr.- age about 16 - son of Stephen Sr.)

Richard Caudle - - 26 Nov. 1759, - Witness to a land sale, between John Gunter and Richard Gunter in Brunswick co. Va. This same John Gunter witnessed a deed for Stephen and Sampson Caudle in St. Andrews Parish, Brunswick co.Va., in 1747. (Deed Book 6, page, 412 ). Hugh Williams was also a witness. This Richard may have been a son of "Stephen Sr.", but I have no evidents of this.

John Caudle - - 28., Nov.,1758. Indenture between Sampson Caudle and John Caudle, for 5 shillings conveying 50 acres, adjoining lands of Davis, Cordel, Hubbard Quarles, and John Draper. Witnesses: John Gunter Jr., Richard Gunter, and Hugh Williams. Indenture and receipt were proved in court on - 29 Nov. 1758, by oath of witnesses. Deed Book 6, page 305.

Note - This deed shows that the remaining 50 acres of Stephen Caudle Sr.'s land grant, stayed in the family. Sampson had previously bought 146 acres of his father's 446 acre grant; ( James Quarles bought 250 acres - leaving 50 acres ) In this deed, John Caudle simply sold his interest in the "Homeplace" of his deceased father, ( Stephen had died just a few months earlier ) to his brother Sampson, before moving just across the colonial line ( State-line ) into Granville co.N.C. ( brother Benjamin followed ) Notice that Hugh Williams and the Gunter brothers, were also on other deeds of the "Caudle" family, all, in - St.Andrews Parish, Brunswick co.Va. ( St. Andrews Parish is now in Greenville County, Va.) ( Sampson stayed in Va. until his death. John died in N.C.)

Early Caudle / Cordell's

Edward Cordle - - 1 Oct. 1741, Brunswick co. Va., order book 2, page 35 - Edward Cordle is listed among the tithables who were ordered to work on the road. ( Stephen Caudle Sr.'s son )

Mr. Cordell - - A minister about Cambridgeshire England, left 5 lbs. by Daniel Williams of Hoxton or Hopton, D.D. near London. Will probated 1716. ( Waters, Genealogical Gleanings, page 629.)

Note - This is not the above Rev. John Cordell, he wasn't born until about 1720. Given the date, and the place, this would most likely be our Stephen Caudle. ( or Cordell )

Richard Cordell - - 1704 - Cordell and Clark, jointly owned 1000 acres of land in Gloucester co. Va. ( "Cavaliers & Pioneers" - Abstracts of Va. land patents and grants.)

Richard Cordell - - 1704 - was Sheriff for Ware Petso and Kingston Parishes ( see - Charles City, co. rent roll.- Planters of Colonial Va. by Thomas J. Wertenbaker.)

Richard Caudle - - 26 March, 1778 - Will-Book- 4, page 74, St. Andrews Parish, Brunswick co. Va. Land division - equally among - William Caudle, John Caudle, & Charles Caudle. ( this Richard is not the same Richard Caudle as the above Richard, he is much too young, he is probably Richard Jr.- a son of the above Richard Cordell or a son of Stephen Caudle Sr., I have no information. )

Mary Caudle - - 15 July, 1782 - Brunswick co. Va. order book - 2, page 359, Mary Caudle, son William, daughter Susanna Wilks, sister Buttrill Hammond, and son Charles, - probated 28 Oct., 1782. ( Wife of the above Richard Caudle.) From their ages and the ages of their children, Mary and Richard were probably born about 1710 - 1720, within the same time-frame that Stephen Caudle came to America.

John Caudle - - Sergeant - Army - Brunswick co. Va. ( son of Richard and Mary Caudle )

William Caudell - - 25 Oct., 1782 - Sussex co. Va. - married Lorana Jones. ( William was a son of the above Richard and Mary Caudle ) - ( Sussex co. Va. was made from Brunswick co.)

Henry Simmons Caudle - 27 June, 1758. Indenture between James Wrenn and David Dunn of Amelia co. Va. conveying 400 acres on the south side of Tetoro creek, adjoining land of Henry Simmons Caudle and others. ( This Henry Caudle may have been Stephen Caudle Sr.'s brother from England. ( Born ca. 1684 or 1685 ) Stephen had a brother and a grandfather, named "Henry". )

Early Caudles / Cordell's

Peter Cordel - - 18 April, 1726 - Bound to Samuel Gloynes to serve in Pennsylvania. ( Believed from Germany )

Nathaniel Cordall - - 2 June, 1690, age 42, - no details - born about - 1648.

James Caudle - - 1738 - John Yates appears involved with a James Caudle in Gloucester co. Va.

James Cordall - - Fincastle and Montgomery co's Va.- Rev.War records, 1775 - 1783.

Nicholas Cordill - - 1 April,1771 - Vol. 2, page 36, Pittsylvania co. Va. court records. Case apparently started - 24 July,1764.

Benjamin Caudle (1) - - 1750-1760, was a land owner in Sussex co. Va. ( Sussex co. was formed in 1753, from Surry co. )

John Caudall - - Aug.,1760 - 1 tithe ( list of tithables for Granville co. N.C.)

Benjamin Caudall (1) - - Aug.,1760 -1 tithe ( list of tithables for Granville co. N.C.)
John and Benjamin Caudle were brothers.

Benjamin Cardle (1) - - Aug.,1761 - 1 tithe ( list of tithables for Granville co. N.C.) John was gone from the list, he apparently moved to Bladen co. N.C. and then to Anson co. Benjamin followed, for he also leaves Granville co. (later) Benjamin Caudle (1) moved to Chatham co. N.C. ( then Orange co.) before 1772, for he was listed in the Chatham co. Militia in 1772. - Brother John likely moved to S.C. or stayed in Anson co. There was a John Cottle who died in Georgia about 1807, but he was likely to young to be this John.

John Caudle - - 1787 - buys land in Chatham co. N.C. (deed shows he came from Cumberland co. N.C.) This John is probably a son of the now died Benjamin (1), and a brother to Benjamin (2) who also moved back to Chatham co. This John stays in Chatham co. until he dies, but Benjamin (2) moves 1st.to Rowan co.N.C., then 2nd. to Wilkes co.N.C., and finally to Habersham co. Georgia were he stays until his death.

Richard Cordell - - 4 Nov.,1655 - married Bridget Newton - in Dunham Magna, Suffolk co. England.

Early Caudle / Cordell's

James Caudle - - 16 April, 1683 - James Caudle and Benjamin Clements bought 550 acres of land from William Sawyer. This land was on the north side of the Mattapony river in New Kent co. Va. - now King and Queen co.( see - "Cavaliers and Pioneers" - page 369 - by Marion Nugent.) This would be the James that got the Land-Grant in 1654, or his son, - right time - right place. This James Caudle, apparently is little or no kin to the Stephen Caudle who was born in 1679, and didn't come to America until ca-1718.

James Caudle - - 1775 - obtained a passport to travel to the "Creek Indian Nation." ( see "Norfolk Circuits" 1663 - 1775, Vol.,7 - page 57.) a passport was needed to travel from one nation to another, and that included the - United States and the - Indian Nations. The "Creek Indian Nation" was located mostly in what is now - Georgia, Alabama, and Tenn. This James Caudle is likely James Caudle Sr., or his son James Caudle Jr.

Nathaniel Cordall - - 2 June,1690, age - 42. (Va. Gen. Mag. - Book P, page - 136.)

Note - - This list of early Caudle / Cordell's is unlikely to be a complete listing, but it's all I have after twelve years of searching. This list has been checked and double-checked, and is highly accurate, however, it came from many sources. I cannot guarantee the 100 % accuracy of all these sources. We also need to remember that some people came to America without ever being recorded - A few went back to England - a few had no male children - and a great many died without ever being recorded on any document - many of the documents have been lost or destroyed. Also, just because someone is first seen on a land-grant, doesn't mean that is also the time they came to America - they could have been here for years, or even born here, and still get a land-grant. We also need to remember that the "Virginia Colony" had been settled for over 100 years by the time that "Stephen Caudle" arrived (1714 -1718), and was very much like old England; even most of the places had names from that part of England, where Stephen had lived - Norfolk, Suffolk, St. Andrews, New Kent, etc. Also, by this time the "Church of England" was well established, and had a powerful hold on the people; the very thing that the Baptists left England to avoid.

By the time that Stephen Caudle came to America, the Caudle's had been here for about 80 years, with William Cawdle being the first; but there is nothing more known about him; he may have just up and died. There were also people with some version of our name, that came to America as late as the 1800's. The Caudle / Cordell families came to America over a course of 200 years, so obviously they all were not related. That is why it's so difficult to establish our own branch of this very large family. The Scott co.Tenn. branch, is the Stephen Caudle ( Caudell ) branch - as is, the Habersham co.Georgia (now Banks co.) - the Wilkes co. N.C. - the Caudills of eastern Ky. - the Candle's ( Caudle's ) and Cordell's of Alabama - and many others.

Census

Misc. information for Caudle / Cordell

The first U.S.census was taken in 1790, and are available in that year for the states of - North Carolina and South Carolina, but were lost for the states of Virginia and Georgia. In that year, Kentucky was a part of Virginia, and Tennessee was part of the - Southwest Territory. The first U.S.census available for the states of -Virginia and Kentucky is 1810, and then not for all counties.The first U.S.census available for Georgia is 1820, and Eastern Tennessee 1830. Until after 1805, most of Tennessee, and the present-day, Kentucky counties of - Whitley and McCreary, and parts of - Wayne, Knox, and Bell, were not a part of the United States, but a part of the old "Cherokee" Indian nation. If you lived on the north side of the Cumberland river, you were a U.S. citizen, but if you lived on the south side of the river, you were a citizen of the "Cherokee Nation" and therefore a "Cherokee", regardless of your race. There were - White Cherokee - Black Cherokee - Indian Cherokee - and a mixture of all these. When the U.S.Government forced the "Cherokee Nation" to move to the "Oklahoma Territory", ( 1838 ) it was not an act of racism but an act of nationalism. The United States simply could not have a large independent nation within it's borders. The citizens of the "Cherokee Nation" were given the option to stay, if they would give up their independence and become U.S. citizens; of which, a great many did, mostly the - Whites, Blacks, and Mixed-bloods. Most of the full-blooded Indians went to Oklahoma .This is not to say that an injustice was not committed; from the time that the first "white-man" stepped foot on American soil until today, a grave injustice-was and is-being committed. Whenever one group of people "take" the land of another group, no-matter whether they come in peace, or with a gun, the end results is always the same - ie, the land owners lose part or all of their land to the new invaders. ( this is happening "world wide" today )

The 1890 U.S.census was lost for the above states, due to a fire in a records office in Washington, D.C.; and due to a federal law, the census for individuals is withheld for 70 years; thus, making the last available census ( as of year -2000 ) 1920. This is why, its so hard to identify some relatives born after this date, and why, you won't see more of the people you know, in this book.

Caudle / Cordell's and the Georgia Land Lotteries

Two men with different variants of the surname Caudle / Cordell - Mathew Candle (Caudle) of Jefferson county, and John Cottle of Montgomery county, registered for the first (1805) Georgia Land Lottery, neither won a prize. Rules required that participants must have resided in the state for at least one year, so they were in Georgia by 1804.

The second (1807) Georgia Land Lottery distributed districts 6 to 20 in Baldwin county, and 6 to 28 in Wilkinson. Only the winners names have survived from this, and all subsequent Ga. Land Lotteries. The only Caudle / Cordell to win was Delilah Cottle (John's widow) of Montgomery county - which was formed from the Bounty-Land county of Washington in 1793. Her prize was lot # 43 in the 21st.district of Wilkinson county.

The third (1820) Georgia Land Lottery opened up eight new counties for settlement - Gwinnett, Habersham, Hall, Rabun and Walton in north Georgia, and the three south Georgia counties of Appling, Early and Irwin. Winners in the two previous lotteries were excluded from participation in this one. Eligibility rules were enlarged to provide special provisions for veterans of the "Revolutionary War" as well as widows and orphans of "Revolutionary War"soldiers. Winners bearing some variant of the name Caudle / Cordell included three from Franklin county, two from Twiggs, and one from Washington. Both Franklin and Washington counties had been settled predominantly by holders of Bounty Land Warrants for service in the "Revolutionary War." From Vaughn's district in Franklin county, Elnathan Canadell (Caudell) won two prizes:

Lot #155, 5th. district of Early county which was granted to William S.Rogers on 16 June, 1842.

Lot #398, 1st. district of Appling county for which there is no grant information.

Remember that the Land Lottery winners often did not settle the lands that they had won - selling them instead to speculators. To determine whither or not a person settled the lands that he or she won, a researcher would need to search the deeds in the counties where the land was located - not in the county where the winner resided at the time of the drawing. These deeds sometimes contained useful information about the winners - including migrations and deaths that occurred between the drawing and the granting or sale. However, lots never claimed or sold reverted to the state and were sold at auction. Each deed was originally accompanied by a surveyor's plat containing names of the chain-carriers who were often relatives of grantees.

From Twiggs county ( formed from Wilkinson which had been created by the 1805 lottery ),

Matthew Caudle won:

Lot # 50, 12th.district, Habersham county, which was granted to him on 22 April, 1830.

Joseph Caudle also from Twiggs county won:

Lot # 70, 1st. district of Habersham county which was granted to him on 8 March 1830.

William Cordull of Pool's district in Washington county won:

Lot # 58, 6th. district of Early county which was granted to him on 1 May,1821.

The fourth (1821), Land -Lottery distributed lots in the new counties of Dooly, Fayette, Henry, Houston, and Monroe - each having 202 & 1/2 acres.This Land Lottery added a new eligibility category:

Caudle / Cordell's and the Georgia Land Lotteries

Fortunate winners named Caudle / Cordell - or some variant thereof - include:

Stephen Caudell - Taylor's district of Habersham county - won lot #20, 2nd. district of Henry county, which was granted to him on 6 Dec.,1827.

Ephraim Candle (Caudle) of Twiggs co. won lot # 95, 11th. district of Dooly co.

David Caldwell Sr. ( Caudell ) - Turk's district in Franklin co. won lot # 199, in 16th. district of Houston county, which was granted to - David Cawdell Sr.

Francis Cordal - won a lot in Henry county. No grant information.

The fifth (1827 ), Land Lottery produced three Caudle / Cordell winners of four prizes from Franklin co., three from Habersham ( which was created partially from Franklin in 1818 ), two from Twiggs and one from Liberty. Their prizes were located in the new counties of - Lee, Muscogee, and Troup. Only Joseph from Twiggs co. was a repeat winner. New Caudle / Cordell winners were David with 2 draws and 2 prizes.( Veterans of the "Revolutionary War" got two draws in this Land Lottery.) James and Jesse from Franklin county; Benjamin and Isham from Habersham county; Absalom from Twiggs, and Charles E. Cawdee from Liberty county.

David Caudle - of Franklin co.won lot # 223, 19th. district, - Lee co.- granted to him, 1 July, 1843.

Jesse Caudell - of Franklin co. won lot #138, 5th.dist.- Muscogee co.- granted to him, 5 Jan.,1837.

James Caudell - of Franklin co. won lot #167,21st. Dist.- Lee co.- granted to him, 12 Nov.,1839.

Joseph Caudle - of Twiggs co.won lot #233, 21st. dist.- Muscogee co. - granted him, 13 Jan. 1829.

The sixth (1832), Land Lottery of Georgia made available for distribution and settlement that part of the "Cherokee Indian Nation" which was in Georgia. One part of the area was referred to as the 'Gold Lots' ( 40 acres ), and the other part was referred to as the "Land Lots" ( 160 acres ). The 1832 lottery opened up the last area within the present boundaries of Georgia which had never before been available to white settlers. ( Gold had been discovered in North Georgia )

Cherokee Indians

The western and northern boundaries of Georgia were established in 1802 by the cession of the western territory, from the Chattahoochee River to the Mississippi, to the United States. This cession provided for a peaceful removal of all Indians within these boundaries. In 1828, the Cherokee still remained causing Georgia to extend jurisdiction over them and name the area Cherokee County. On December 21, 1830, and December 24, 1831, the General Assembly enacted legislation authorizing a lottery for distribution of the land to the citizens of Georgia to be held in 1832. Immediately thereafter, all of Cherokee County was divided into ten counties. Floyd County was created out of Cherokee on December 3, 1832. The 1835 Treaty between the "United States" and the "Cherokee Nation" finally caused the Cherokee to move west beyond the Mississippi River.

A publication was found in Georgia Archives showing the - Poor School Roll for Floyd County, Ga., in 1837. The following names were listed as "Whites among the Cherokees" in the 923 District:

Mary Caudle	age 12
Nancy J. Caudle	age 10
Catharin Caudle	age 15

The following family names were also found in the Georgia State Archives, in the publication: "Old Cherokee Families. Old Families and Their Genealogy" :

Husband: Nelson Riley, married Elizabeth Thompson & Mary Cordell nee.
Husband: Julius Riley, married Amanda Cordell.

Note - No dates were given.

Kentucky Land Grants

A group of records entered from 1797 to 1866 included 15,730 separate grants, and were known sometimes as "Headright Claims." These were based upon an act of the Kentucky General Assembly of December 21, 1795. Prior to the establishment of Kentucky as a state, Virginia had reserved for her soldiers all the lands in Kentucky south of the Green River. These were encompassed by a line from the head of this stream to the Cumberland Mountains and with these mountains to the Carolina line, thence to the Tennessee River, to the Ohio River, and with the Ohio to the Green River. Lands thus located under the Virginia law are of military origin. Until 1797, no person could enter a survey within this reservation, except a soldier.

When Kentucky as a sovereign state took charge of her vacant lands, new legislation opened up this great reservation south of the Green River to any persons possessed of family and over 21 years of age. Such persons were entitled to not less than 100 acres or more than 200 acres, but must have been bona-fide settlers on the land for one year before they came into actual possession. The following received grants south of Walker's line:

Kentucky Land Warrants

In 1815, the Kentucky State Legislature passed an Act relative to land distribution and the records written in fulfillment of this statute are known as Kentucky Land Warrants 1816-1873. This Act opened for sale 100 acre grants at $20 to anyone in Kentucky except an alien. In following this method, the purchaser secured a receipt from the State Treasurer which was in turn converted into a land office warrant, authorizing the owner to locate and survey a certain acreage. When this was completed and returned to the land office, it was registered and a land patent was issued to the owner within approximately six months. The following received Kentucky Land Warrants:

The most extensive group of Kentucky land records has become known as the County Court Orders. This group of grants was created by an Act of the General Assembly and approved February 28, 1835. Under the statute each county in Kentucky was given all the vacant and unappropriated land within its boundary lying east and north of the Tennessee River. This is the most recent group of land grants in Kentucky dating from 1836 to 1924. Approximately 175 names with the spelling of Caudell, Caudil, Caudill and Caudle are included in this listing.

Notes - The 1860 - 1870 - 1880 & 1900 census (the 1890 census burned ) of this part of Ky. contain many mistakes and contradictions.

Whenever the husband was away or out on the farm working, which was most of the time, the census taker had to get his information from the wife or children, whom as often as not, did not know just when, or what state the husband was born, so they would just guess. The census information came from the wife and children, not the husband. The 1870 census of Whitley co. Ky. shows John R.Caudell / Cordell to be 50 yrs.old when he was really only 45. John R.and wife Nancy Anderson were both 45, they were about the same age. The 1860 census is the correct one showing both John & Nancy to be 34. John R. Caudell was born the later half of 1825 in Ga. Sometimes the census show a person born in Ky. when they were really born in Tn. or Ga. - - The Margaret Strunk shown on the 1870 Whitley co. Ky. census married Ambrose M. Cordell. - - Willie and Luther Cordell were living with their Uncle and Aunt, (Thomas Strunk and Martha Strunk Trammel) after their mother (Lucinda (Lucy) Strunk Cordell) had died.- - John R. Cordell was the son of Stephen Caudell / Cordell. - - The above Jesse Cordell and brother William H. Cordell ( 1880 census) were soldiers in the "Civil War." - - The above widow, Nancy Cordell (1900 Census) was the 2nd. wife of William H. Cordell.-- NOTE -William Bridges is on the Chatham county, N.C. deeds with Jesse Caudle.

Remember - Caudle is short for Caudell, and Cordle is short for Cordell, and the difference between Caudell and Cordell is only a manner or style of speech. All other forms of this name are misspellings.
